

CPUC/CEC Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group – Seeking New Member

The California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) and the California Energy Commission (CEC) are seeking applications from interested persons to fill one seat on the Senate Bill 350 Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group (Advisory Group).

The new member will fill the seat formerly held by Waudier Rucker-Hughes, the President of the Riverside Branch of the NAACP and a community leader in Riverside. The Commissioners will prioritize applicants who represent the communities that Ms. Rucker-Hughes represented.

More information about the advisory group is on the Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group website: www.cpuc.ca.gov/DACAG.

Instructions for Applicants

Any person interested in joining the Advisory Group should first review the SB 350 Disadvantaged Advisory Group Charter.

To apply, individuals interested in joining the Advisory Group should submit an application that includes:

- 1. Resume or curriculum vitae demonstrating his/her significant industry knowledge, subject matter expertise, and experience in a disadvantaged community, and
- 2. Letter of interest, not to exceed two pages, that demonstrates his/her qualifications including:
 (i) his/her ability and willingness to meaningfully participate and provide thoughtful and actionable input, and (ii) how specifically, and perhaps uniquely, he/she hopes to contribute to the Advisory Group. The letter should include the specific geographical location(s) of the disadvantaged community the applicant represents.
- 3. Applicants may also attach letters of support from other parties that describe (i) how the applicant is qualified to serve on the Advisory Group; and (ii) how specifically, and perhaps uniquely, the applicant could contribute to the advisory Group.

Submit application to DACAG@energy.ca.gov by September 21, 2018.

Please contact Sarah Sharpe at sarah.sharpe@cpuc.ca.gov or Alana Mathews at publicadviser@energy.ca.gov with any questions.

