

Between Valley and Serrano Substations:
A second 500 kV circuit would be added next to the existing 500 kV line.

Between Devers and Valley Substations:
There would be no change to the 2 existing 500 kV circuits. The WOD Interim Facility and the WOD 220 kV circuits would be retained.

Sources: SCE 2014		Substation No Project Alternative Option 2 Devers - Valley Transmission Line Habitat Conservation Plan Boundary	Critical Habitat Arroyo (=arroyo southwestern) toad Braunton's milk-vetch Coastal California gnatcatcher	Least Bell's vireo Riverside fairy shrimp San Diego ambrosia Santa Ana sucker Southwestern willow flycatcher	Spreading navarretia Thread-leaved brodiaea Yellow-billed Cuckoo City Boundary	Federal Land Ownership March Air Force Base BLM Cleveland National Forest Local Government	El Toro Marine Corps Air Station State Weir Canyon Regional Park
-------------------	--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------

West of Devers Upgrade Project
Figure ES-4b
No Project Alternative Option 2