

2012 California Energy Consumption – Residential Data

California Public Utilities Commission Policy & Planning Division July 2013

Objective & Key Takeaways

- Show aggregated energy data by city.
 - This data is Residential data for calendar year 2012.
- The data shows:
 - Highest & Lowest bills by city
 - Highest & Lowest Consumption by city
 - Average monthly rates charged by each utility
 - Average monthly usage per utility territory
 - Aggregated usage, rate, and bills for every city in California

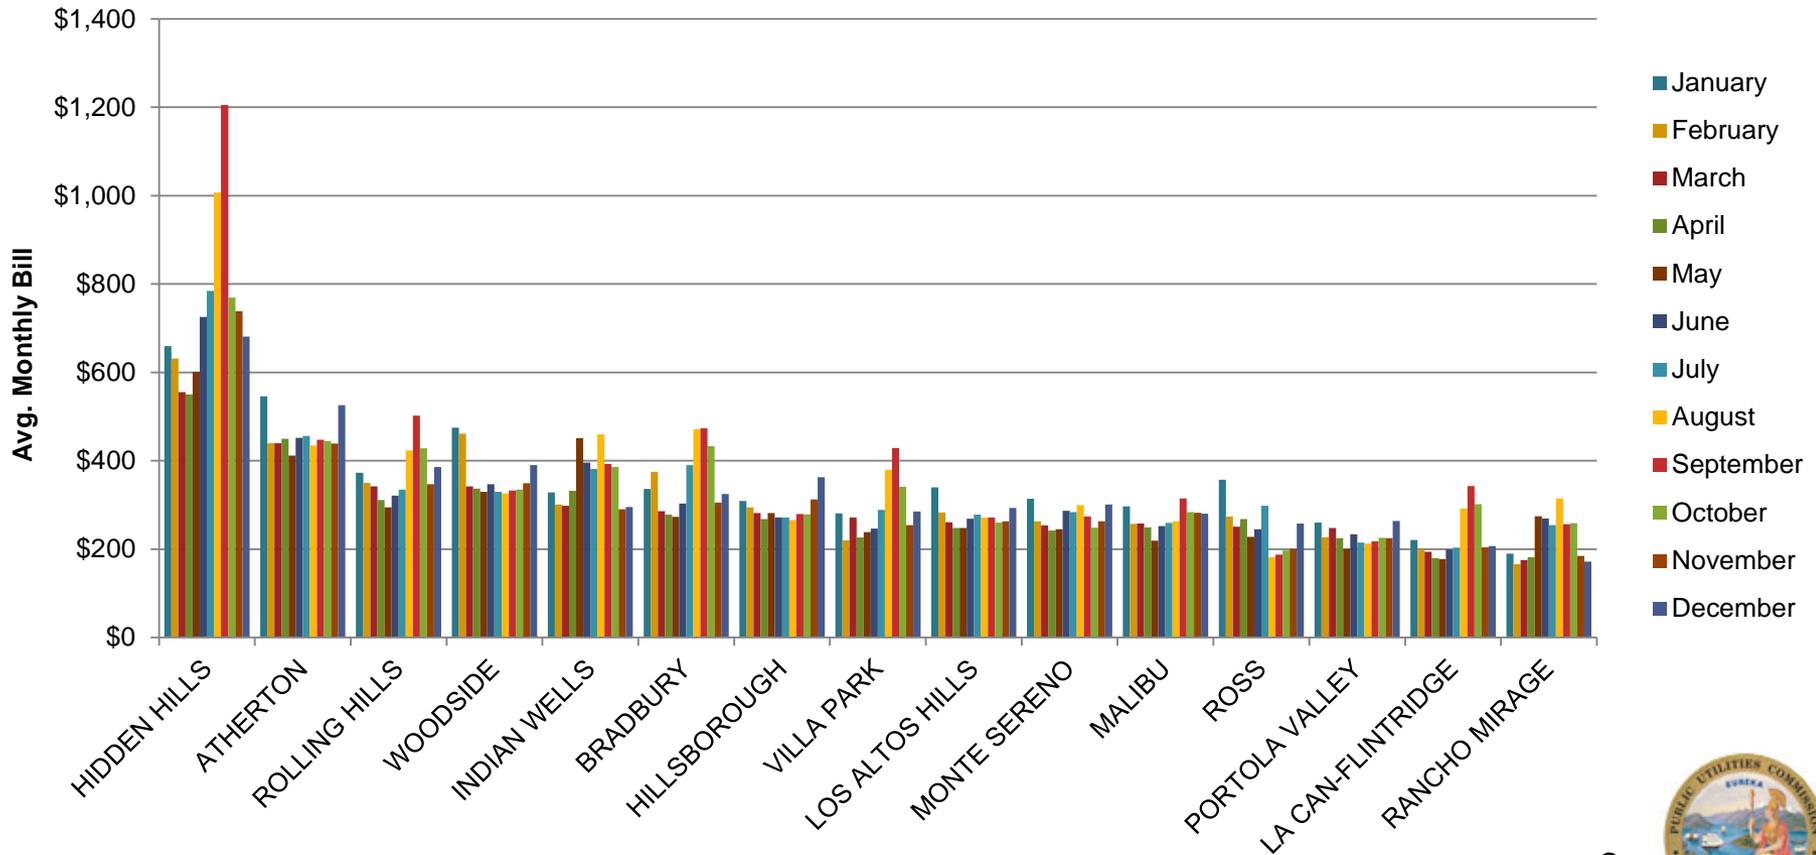

15 Cities that Pay the Most

Highest Average Bills per Month
2012 Residential Data

15 Cities that Pay the Least

Lowest Average Bills per Month
2012 Residential Data

15 Cities with the Highest Consumption

Highest Monthly Average Electric Consumption
2012 Residential Data

15 Cities with the Lowest Consumption

Lowest Monthly Average Electric Consumption
2012 Residential Data

Average Monthly Rate by Utility – Residential Data for 2012

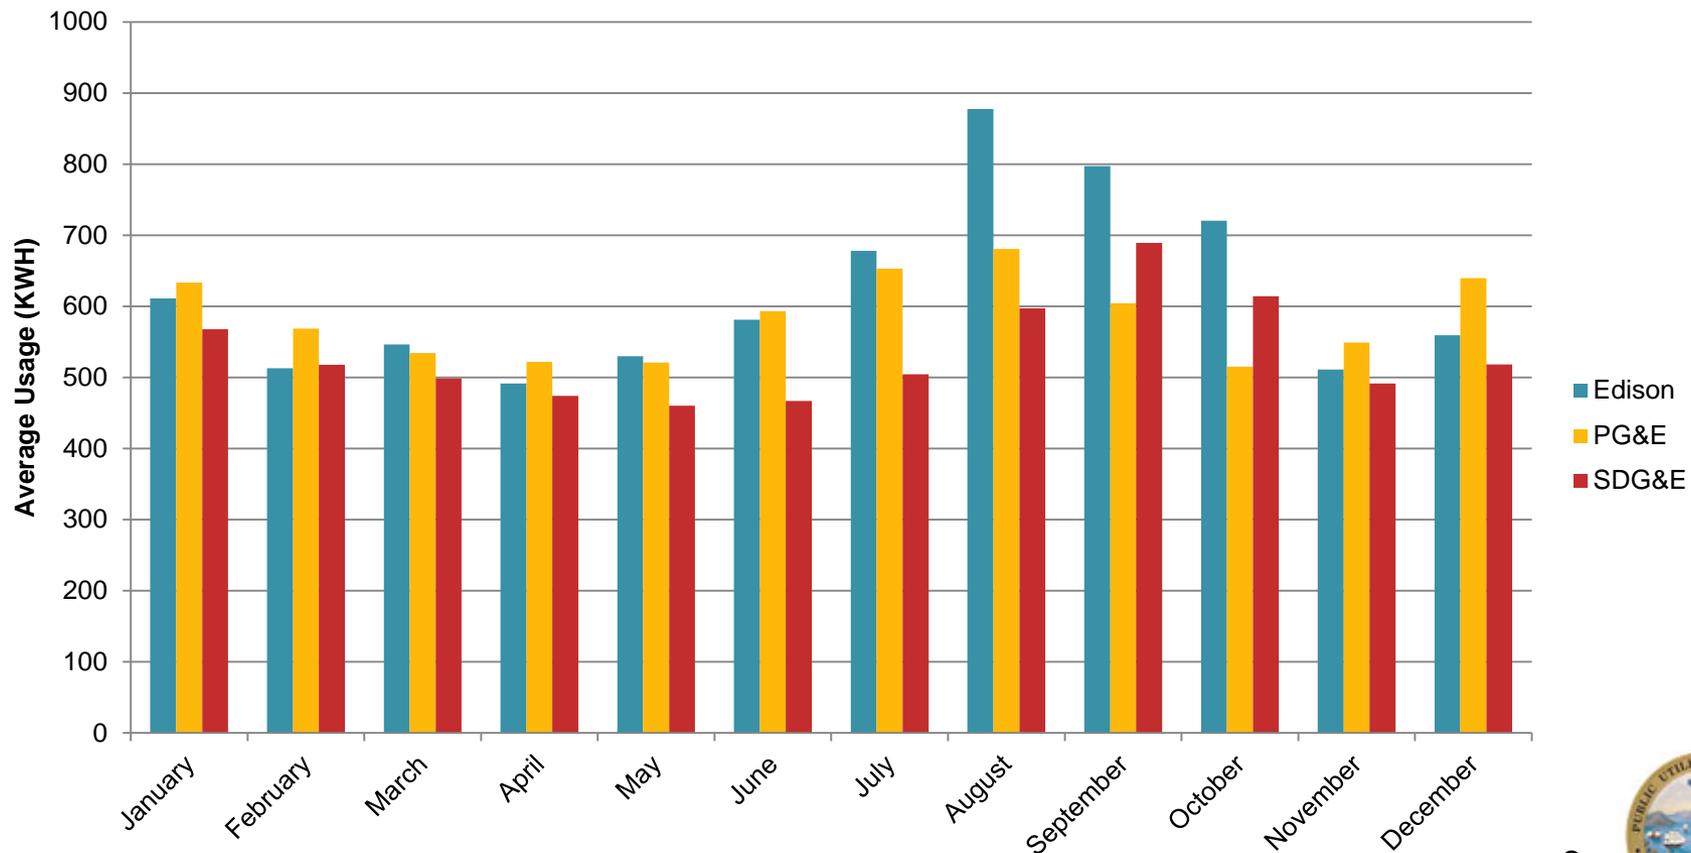

2012 Average Residential Rate

Average Usage Residential Data for 2012

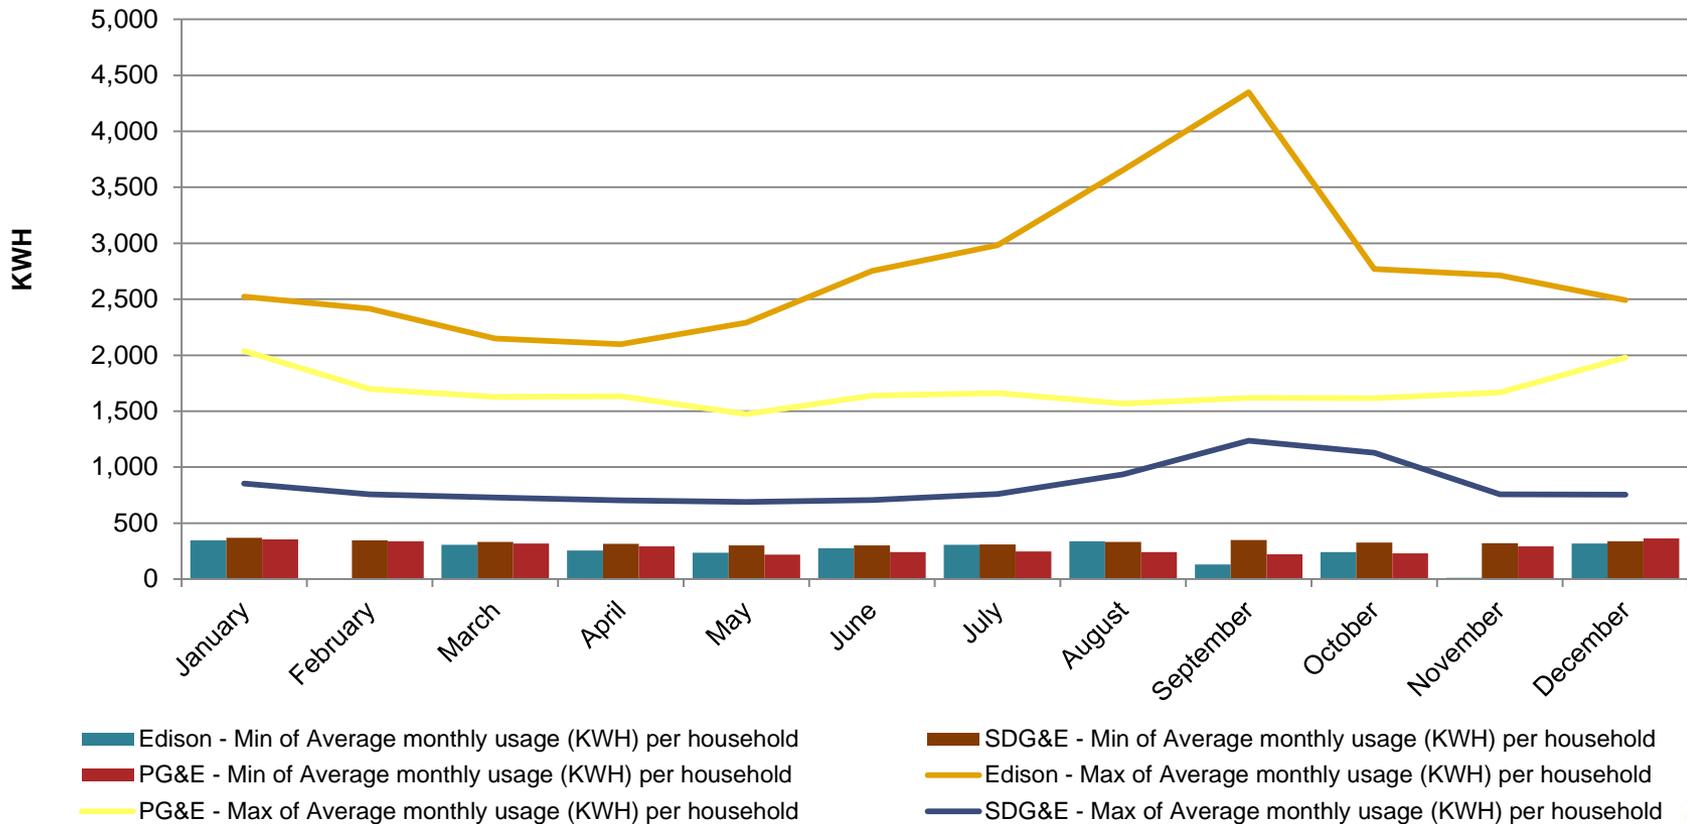

2012 Residential Data - Monthly Avg. Usage by Utility

Minimum & Maximum Usage – Residential Data for 2012

Min & Max Usage by Utility by Month

2012 Residential Data by City & by Utility

- Need further information?
 - Find out usage, rate, and bill information for every city here.
 - Contact the CPUC's Policy & Planning Division
 - Marzia Zafar – Director, Policy & Planning Division
 - <http://www.cpuc.ca.gov/PUC/aboutus/Divisions/ppd/>

