

FORMS OF PUBLIC INPUT

Public Inputs	Input On or off the Record?		Is Input Coming from a Party or Non-Party?		Who has access? Where are files located?	Transcribed?	Disposition	(Other)	Audience - Who Can Participate?
	On	Off	Party	Non-Party
PPHs	x <sup>1</sup>			x	Transcript in Central Files	yes			Non-parties, but parties may be allowed to make statements.
Workshops	x <sup>2</sup>		x	x	Workshop Report or comments can be added to record by ALJ ruling	Usually no; Judge may order a workshop report by staff, or on rare occasions, transcribe portions/summaries			Parties and public
All-Party Meetings		x	x		None, since not on record	No			Parties
Other Meetings between Stakeholders, Parties, & Staff		x	?	?	None, since not on record	No			?

<sup>1</sup> Public comments at PPH are not considered evidence, but are part of the record because they show that the PPH(s) took place.

<sup>2</sup> Workshop discussion also is not evidence, but it is part of the record that the workshop took place. A subsequent workshop report, including a summary of participants' comments, can be placed in the record by ALJ ruling, although it is still not cross-examined evidence.

Individual Ex Parte Meetings		x	x		Summary of meeting attached to notice and filed; on Docket Card				Parties
Written Ex Partes		x	x		Served on all parties same day	NA
Letters or Emails		x	x	x	If from a party, same as written ex parte. If from non-party and Judge receives it, Judge can add to correspondence file of proceeding. [Public Advisor also may keep these?]	NA			