

VERIFICATION OF GOOGLE FIBER CALIFORNIA, LLC 's STATUS
AS A CABLE TELEVISION CORPORATION
UNDER SECTION 216.4 OF THE PUBLIC UTILITIES CODE

1. On August 26, 2011, the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) granted Google Fiber California, LLC (Google Fiber) a state video franchise, which authorizes construction and operation of a network in the right-of-way capable of providing video service to subscribers.
2. Google Fiber's franchise currently enables it to provide video services in a testbed located on the Stanford University campus, as well as in the cities of Mountain View, Palo Alto, San Jose, Santa Clara, and Sunnyvale.
3. Through its Gigabit + TV plan, Google Fiber transmits television programs, as well as broadband Internet access service, via fiber optic cable to subscribers for a fee, including on the Stanford University campus. Google Fiber affiliates currently provide these services in the Kansas City designated market area in Kansas and Missouri, Austin, Texas, and Provo, Utah, and Google Fiber contemplates offering the services in the same fashion in the cities of Mountain View, Palo Alto, San Jose, Santa Clara, and Sunnyvale.
4. Accordingly, Google Fiber warrants that it is a cable television corporation in California.

I swear or affirm that all of the statements or representations made in this Verification are true and correct of my own knowledge.
