

Integrated Resource Planning Workshop on the upcoming Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal Addressing Good Faith Effort and Net Cost of New Entry (Net CONE)

On July 23, 2026, from 2:00pm – 4:00pm, Energy Division Integrated Resource Planning (IRP), Procurement and Oversight Section, will host a public webinar on the upcoming Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal that will be issued in Rulemaking (R.) 25-06-019. The workshop will be recorded, with the recording posted to the Integrated Resource Planning (IRP) webpage afterward. The goal of the upcoming Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal is to discuss the topics for the Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal and associated questions.

The recording of this workshop will not be entered into the formal record.

Objectives of the Workshop:

- Familiarize stakeholders with the contents of the Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal topics and proposed approaches.
- Give an opportunity for stakeholders to ask clarifying questions before submitting formal written comments.

Agenda

2:00 PM	Introductions
2:15 PM	Background & Objectives
2:25 PM	Procurement Compliance Staff Proposal Topics Overview
2:35 PM	Topics' Question Discussion
3:55 PM	Closing Remarks
4:00 PM	Workshop Concludes

Preparation

- Questions will be provided with subsequent Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) ruling.
- During the workshop, there will be opportunities for stakeholders to ask clarifying questions. However, the comments and questions during this webinar will not be entered into the formal record of R.25-06-019. Staff will not record stakeholder questions or comments. Stakeholders will need to submit formal comments in response to a subsequent ALJ's ruling according to the Commission's process requirements.
- Commissioners from the CPUC may be in attendance. The workshop has been noticed on the CPUC Daily Calendar.
