

Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group Discussion of Conflict of Interest Considerations

Led by DACAG Attorney Liaisons on August 21, 2018

DACAG Charter, § 4.2 Conflict of Interest Policy

Although committee members are not considered to be public officials under the Political Reform Act, to identify potential conflicts of interest and any appearance of impropriety committee members shall complete a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) prior to taking a seat on the Advisory Group, annually, and upon the conclusion of the member's term.

Each member shall disclose on his or her Form 700 each economic interest, as defined, in any entity seeking to provide any product or service related to the Advisory Group's function, or that has plans to come before the Advisory Group or either the CPUC or the Energy Commission to seek funds from the monies under the control of either Commission, or in a parent or subsidiary of such an entity. Each Advisory Group member will maintain his or her own Form 700, and the CPUC and the Energy Commission will also maintain a copy of the Form 700s for all members.

The Form 700 for any member will be provided to any person upon request within a reasonable period. In addition, Advisory Group members may from time to time encounter a situation that presents a potential conflict of interest for the Advisory Group member. In such situations, the Advisory Group or any member should consult with a legal liaison to the Advisory Group to obtain advice on how to proceed.

Political Reform Act

Government Code § 87100

No public official at any level of state or local government shall make, participate in making or in any way attempt to use his official position to influence a governmental decision in which he knows or has reason to know he has a financial interest.

Government Code § 1090

[S]tate. . . officers or employees shall not be financially interested in any contract made by them in their official capacity, or by any body or board of which they are members. (Government Code section 1090(a))
