The existing view to the southeast across West Mesa, just to the west of BLM Road 326 and the adjacent wood-pole H-frame transmission line that the Proposed Project would parallel.

This image presents a visual simulation of the Proposed Project paralleling (to the east) an existing wood-pole H-frame transmission line. The proposed structures would be prominently visible to 4WD recreationists on nearby BLM Roads.