The existing view to the east-northeast toward the existing transmission line corridor along the north side of Scripps Poway Parkway from the southwest corner of Spring Canyon Neighborhood Park.

This image presents a visual simulation of the Proposed Project parallel to the existing transmission line and Scripps Poway Parkway. The new structures would replace the existing H-frame transmission line.