

- California State University, Fresno Foundation

Telephone No(s). For assistance with finding low cost internet
(855) 456-9995/(855) 4LOW995
For information on getting a discount on Boost Mobile for CARE
customers
(833) 272-8315/(833) 2SAVE15

More Information The Call Center hours are 8:00 am – 5:00 pm.
They take calls from anyone anywhere in California.

- human-I-T

Website <https://www.human-i-t.org/request-internet>

Telephone No. For texting only (562) 372-6925 (English and Spanish) to obtain assistance in signing up for low-cost broadband internet services..

More Information

- Qualified low-income individuals are able to purchase professionally refurbished technology at a discounted price at www.hitconnect.org
- Nonprofit organizations and school districts interested in purchasing professionally refurbished technology at a discounted price can submit a form at www.human-i-t.org/request-technology
- Qualified low-income families and individuals may also be eligible for a free Google Chromebook when signing up to low-cost internet.
- They serve all counties in California.

- Sigma Beta Xi, Inc.

Website <https://www.sigmabetaxi.com/low-cost-internet>

Telephone No. For texting only in English and/or Spanish
(951) 406-4466

More Information They primarily serve Riverside County.

- United Ways of California

Website <http://broadband.unitedwaysca.org/>

Telephone No. (877) 355-8922

More Information They serve all counties in California.

- City of San Francisco Digital Equity Initiative

Website <https://sf.gov/news/getting-online-time-coronavirus-covid-19-outbreak>

More Information Resources for low cost internet and accessing the internet. They serve San Francisco