

Notice of CPUC Commissioner Informational Webinar

What: The California Public Utilities Commission (Commission or CPUC) will host an Informational Commissioner Webinar regarding the impacts of climate change and resulting resiliency challenges, the role of utilities in response to these challenges, the potential impact of these events on utilities' finances and Californians, and the Commission's response to these events.

Due to the high interest in these topics, the Commissioners will provide brief remarks and address questions in a webinar format open to the public. To comply with California's statutory requirements regarding ex parte communications with Commissioners, which became effective January 1, 2017, the public, including the investment community, may submit questions for consideration by the Commission. Prior to the Commissioners' review of questions, the Commission's Legal Division will screen the questions to ensure that any ex parte statements regarding CPUC proceedings are not provided to the Commissioners. No votes or Commission action will occur during this webinar.

Who: A quorum of Commissioners may be present. CPUC Energy Division Director Edward Randolph and General Counsel Arocles Aguilar will also participate.

When: February 7, 2018, at 2:00 – 3:00 pm.

Where: The webinar will take place in the Commission Auditorium, 505 Van Ness Ave., San Francisco, CA, and will be broadcast. The Auditorium will be open to the public. To view the webinar online click here: <http://www.adminmonitor.com/ca/cpuc/>. To participate by phone call 1-800-857-1917 and enter the passcode 92105. The public may contact the Public Advisor for the Commission, public.advisor@cpuc.ca.gov or 1-866-849-8390, with questions regarding meeting logistics.

At least one member of the Commission will not be present in San Francisco for the February 7, 2018 Webinar. Therefore, pursuant to Government Code Section 11123(b)(1), NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a member of the Commission will participate by teleconference for the webinar from the following publicly accessible location:

California Public Utilities Commission
300 Capitol Mall, Room 426
Sacramento, CA 95814

Agenda:

- (1) Opening remarks of the Commissioners
- (2) Response to select questions submitted by the public (see below for instructions on how to submit questions)
- (3) Closing remarks of the Commissioners
- (4) Public comment

How to Participate: To submit questions for consideration please email Geoffrey Dryvynsyde, CPUC Assistant General Counsel, at geoffrey.dryvynsyde@cpuc.ca.gov by Thursday, February 1, 2018. Due to the potential volume of questions, question responses will not be provided before the Webinar on February 7, 2018. Question submitters should only submit a question and shall not include any personal statements or opinions in addition to a question. Prior to the Commissioners' review of questions the Commission's Legal Division will screen the questions to ensure that any ex parte statements regarding CPUC proceedings are not provided to the Commissioners. After Legal Division approves the question for the Webinar, questions will be posted on the Commission's webpage without delay. Approved questions will be answered at the Commissioners' discretion and as time permits. Submission of questions is not permitted after Thursday, February 1, 2018. Public comments will be allowed at the conclusion of the webinar.

Ex Parte Compliance: The Commissioners will not make ex parte statements regarding any CPUC formal proceeding or pending investigation, which may lead to a formal proceeding, at this webinar and requests that no parties or interested persons make ex parte statements either.
