

Snuller Price, Senior Partner. Mr. Price leads E3's DER and rates, and climate policy areas. He has 24 years of experience supporting state and utility clients with DER cost-effectiveness, local integrated resource planning, and marginal costing. He is an expert in the economic assessment of distributed resources including distributed generation, co-generation, renewable energy, demand response, and energy efficiency. E3 is supporting the California Locational Net Benefits Analysis (LNBA) and Value of Distributed Energy Resource (VDER) in New York. Mr. Price has a M.S. in Engineering Economic Systems from Stanford University and a B.S. in Engineering and B.A. in Economics from Swarthmore College.